SUBJECT : CONDUCT OF 1ST MOCK TEST POST-CONFERENCE AND PARTICIPATION IN THE 2ND NATIONAL QUALIFYING EXAMINATION FOR SCHOOL HEADS MOCK TEST

DATE : July 13, 2022

In preparation for the upcoming National Qualifying Examination for School Heads (NQESH) on July 30, 2022, the DepEd Central Office conducted the first mock test for the qualified examinees on July 9, 2022 to assess the readiness of the examinees, the system, and other matters concerning the said activity.

Relative to this, the Division designated proctors and help desk staff oriented, observed, and assisted all the examinees during the conduct of the mock test. The proctors and help desk staff gathered frequent issues and concerns encountered by the examinees from the MIMAROPA region.

In view of the foregoing, this Office shall conduct a post-conference with the examinees on July 15, 2022 at San Jose National High School to discuss the issues and concerns encountered during the 1st mock examination.

Notwithstanding, the Central Office shall further conduct the 2nd Mock Examination on July 17, 2022, thus all qualified examinees, proctors, and help desk staff are directed to participate in this national initiative.

Participants are requested to bring laptop, extension wire, and internet modem/pocket WiFi with them for the examination.

Participants shall likewise be granted Compensatory Overtime Credit per CSC and DBM Joint Circular No. 2, s. 2004 and other pertinent rules and regulations on July 17, 2022 (Sunday).

This is a LIVE-OUT Activity. Meals and accommodation of participants shall be charged to local funds subject to the accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

For information dissemination and compliance.
